Davidson Earns Seventh Seed in Southern Conference Tournament

The seventh-seeded Davidson Wildcats will face the second-seeded Georgia Southern Eagles in the opening game of the 2009 Southern Conference Baseball Tournament at 9 a.m. Wednesday at Fluor Field at the West End in Greenville, S.C.

Georgia Southern (38-15, 20-8) swept Davidson (18-29, 11-16) in regular-season play in Statesboro this season, with wins of 12-7, 20-8, and 11-2, April 17-19. The Eagles posted conference series wins over Appalachian State and Western, and swept the College of Charleston, Greensboro, Samford and Wofford.

Davidson, picked to finish last in the SoCon preseason Coaches' Poll, earned the seventh seed with series victories over Furman and Samford, a split with Appalachian State and sweeps of Greensboro and Elon, in a rain-shortened series.

The winner of the Eagles-Wildcats matchup will face the winner of Wednesday's second game between No. 3 seed The Citadel (20-10) and No. 6 seed Appalachian State (15-13) at 5 p.m. Thursday. The losers will play at 9 a.m.

Catamounts Sweep Wildcats in Regular-Season Finale

Chase FitzPatrick's 14th home run of the season jump started a five-run ninth inning to force extra innings, but the Davidson Wildcats ran out of answers, dropping a 10-8, 12-inning decision to Western Carolina Thursday night in the opening game of the regular-season Southern Conference finale.

The Wildcats scored five runs in the bottom of the ninth, but left the winning run on third. Western added two runs in the 10th, but James Cerbie's two-run blast kept things tied. The Catamounts scored the winning runs in the 12th on a pair of RBI-singles.

For a second straight day, the Davidson Wildcats nearly completed a comeback, getting the tying run on the third in the ninth, but the Western Catamounts captured the Southern Conference series with an 11-10 win on senior night Friday. Davidson scored seven runs over the last four innings and went into the bottom of the ninth trailing just two runs with the heart of the order at the plate, but a pair of strikeouts from Chase FitzPatrick and Tommy Piacenza ended the threat.

Mike Frongello (3-2) took the loss for the Wildcats, allowing four runs (one earned) on three hits in an inning of relief for starter Ryan Overcash. Corey Martin (7-4) earned the win, allowing five runs (four earned) on five hits while walking five and striking out seven in five innings. Daniel Ottone picked up his eighth save of the season, getting the pair of strikeouts to strand a pair of runners.

Despite Pat Brady's 2-for-3 day at the plate, including a two-run home run, the Davidson baseball team was unable to mount another late-inning comeback, falling 6-3 to Western Carolina in the regular season finale Saturday afternoon at Wilson Field.

Zach Kanye turned in a 2-for-4 effort batting, scoring a run and connecting on a towering home run in the game. Drew Gadaire, Danny Weiss and Tommy Piacenza each recorded one base hit for the Wildcats. Thomas Middour scattered four hits and three runs (two earned) over five innings of work.

Western Carolina starter Mike Tavernier threw a six-strikeout complete game and picked up his seventh win of the season. Tavernier fanned six Wildcats in nine innings. Mitchell Hatley led the Catamount batters with a 3-for-4 day, including a pair of doubles. Nick Liles was 2-for-3 with a triple and two runs scored, and Brent Greer also connected on two of Western's 12 total base knocks.

Weiss, Gadaire Receive All-Southern Conference Honors

Sophomore designated hitter Danny Weiss was named to the 2009 All-Southern Conference Second Team, and freshman first baseman Drew Gadaire earned a spot on the All-Freshman Team, as voted on by the league's head coaches and announced today by the conference office.

Weiss led the Wildcats at the plate with a .340 batting average. The sophomore from Fort Myers, Fla., hit six home runs and 14 doubles and drove in 36 runs driven in 41 games, spending most of his

Dick COOKE

Richmond '78
19th Season
Davidson Record:
365-594-1

Dick Cooke is entering his 19th season as head coach of the Davidson Wildcats baseball program. During his tenure, he has compiled a record of 347-565-1. No other coach in Davidson history has coached, or won, as many games.

Cooke is fresh off his second appearance in the 2008 Olympics with Team USA baseball in Beijing last August, where he served as an auxiliary coach for manager Davey Johnson. He also served as an auxiliary coach on Tommy Lasorda's staff that led Team USA to the gold medal at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia. In those roles, Cooke was responsible for watching countless videos of opponents to make scouting reports with meticulous charts of their hitters, and being the left-handed batting-practice pitcher.

In 2005, Cooke oversaw one of the country's most prolific offenses as the Wildcats ranked among the top 10 nationally in batting average, home runs per game, doubles per game and slugging percentage. On his watch, Jay Heafner blossomed from a .234 average with just three doubles as a freshman to the nation's second-highest average at .448 with 18 doubles and 11 homers to become an All-American as a junior. Heafner was drafted by the Texas Rangers in 2006, the fourth Wildcat in the previous five years taken in the draft.

When Davidson was still in the Big South Conference back in 1992, Cooke was named the Big South Coach of the Year in just his second season at the helm of the program. In that season, Davidson tied the school record with 28 victories. He is also the only Wildcat baseball coach to win 20 or more games in four consecutive seasons and in more than three different seasons (eight).

Cooke has demonstrated a knack for making the right moves in tight games in the late innings. During his reign, the 'Cats are 163-156 (.511) in games decided by one or two runs, including an 11-6 mark in 2004 and a 13-8 record in one-run games alone in 2000, the most one-run wins in any season in Davidson history. Since 1963, the 'Cats have had 12 seasons in which they have won more than half of their one- and two-run games; Cooke has been the coach for nine of those seasons.

Nineteen years ago, Cooke was the head coach and assistant athletic director at Belmont Abbey where he rebuilt the baseball program and led them to an 11-32 record in their first year at a varsity level following a 17-year hiatus.

Prior to joining the Crusader staff, Cooke was the assistant baseball coach for five seasons

(1984-88) at his alma mater, the University of Richmond. He graduated in 1978 with a degree in journalism and was a three-year baseball letterman for the Spiders as a left-handed starting pitcher, finishing with a 12-10 record. In his senior year, Cooke went 6-3 with a 2.80 ERA and 73 strikeouts in 68 innings.

After graduating from Richmond, Cooke spent three years in the Boston Red Sox organization at the A, AA and AAA levels, serving as a senior player-coach during the 1981 season in the Florida State League.

Involved with USA Baseball since 1999, Cooke first joined the staff of Team USA for the Pan American Games held in Winnipeg, Canada, in 1999, where the U.S. earned the silver medal to qualify for the 2000 Olympics. In the summer of 2003, Cooke spent two months with Team USA as the pitching coach, overseeing a record-setting staff. The Americans posted a miniscule 1.29 ERA while tossing 13 shutouts, both top numbers in the all-time annals of USA Baseball. The team also reeled off 25 consecutive wins while setting a new record for winning percentage at .931 (27-2).

Cooke then served on the staff of the Olympic-qualifying team as an auxiliary coach in November of 2003. Baseball legend Frank Robinson managed the squad that played in the Dominican Republic. In September of 2006, Cooke rejoined the USA staff as an auxiliary coach for the team that beat host Cuba in the gold medal game and qualified for the 2008 Olympics. In November of 2007, he was an auxiliary coach for Team USA, which defeated Cuba 6-3 in Taipei City to win the IBAF World Cup for the first time since 1974.

Cooke is also the director of the Davidson

Wildcat Baseball clinics and summer camps. Having held the week-long summer camps for 17 years to capacity for players ages seven to 18, Cooke has college and high school coaches on staff, all of whom have extensive camp and clinic experience, and have a true passion for the game. The clinics he hosts take place from October to January.

Cooke and his wife, Susan, have been married 21 years and have three daughters, Alison (16), Lindsay (13) and Erin (9). They reside in Gadaire put together one of the most impressive seasons of any Davidson rookie, batting .294 with 11 home runs and seven doubles and driving in 32 runs. He appeared in 41 games and started 36 games, working his way into the lineup as the Wildcats' starting first baseman.

The Overall Record

Georgia Southern leads the all-time series 70-18, including three wins in Statesboro this season. The series dates back to March 22, 1954.

Last Meeting: Eagles Sweep Wildcats

No. 27 Georgia Southern handed the Wildcats their first Southern Conference sweep of 2009 in Statesboro, Ga., April 17-19. The Eagles defeated the Wildcats by scores of 12-7, 20-8 and 11-2.

Chris Mederos, named SoCon Pitcher of the Week for his effort, allowed just four hits for one run over eight innings, and the Eagles scored seven runs in the seventh en route to a 12-7 win Friday night at J.I. Clements Stadium. Mederos improved to a perfect 8-0, striking out nine and walking a pair. For the Wildcats, Thomas Middour (2-4) took the loss, allowing three runs on seven hits in six innings. Graham Chapman and Drew Gadaire collected a pair of hits apiece to lead Davidson at the plate. The Wildcats got to the Eagle bullpen for six runs in the ninth.

Georgia Southern scored seven runs in the first inning and rolled to a 20-8 win Saturday afternoon. The Eagles took control early, chasing Wildcat starter Chris Lamb (1-3) in the first inning. He took the loss after allowing seven runs on six hits. Georgia Southern opened up a 17-1 lead, and Davidson did almost all of its damage in the eighth, putting up seven runs on five hits against relievers Ryan McCafferty and Tony Chisman.

Georgia Southern completed the sweep with an 11-2 win Sunday afternoon. Chase FitzPatrick (4-for-5, RBI) and Pat Brady (3-for-5) combined for seven of the Wildcats' 13 hits, and Calvin Sigelbaum posted his second straight two-hit game. Matt Webb (3-1) made his second start and picked up his first loss after allowing nine runs (eight earned) on nine hits in four innings. Georgia Southern's offense continued to put up runs in bunches for a third straight day, jumping out to a 9-1 lead by the fourth inning.

Western Defeats Davidson in 2008's Play-In Game

Trailing 10-3 entering the top of the ninth, the 10th-seeded Wildcats scored seven runs, but despite three scoreless innings from Matt Webb, ended their season with an 11-10, 12-inning loss to the seventh-seeded Western Carolina Catamounts in the opening round of the 2008 Southern Conference Baseball tournament at Joe Riley Park Tuesday May 20.

Davidson trailed 9-0 entering the eighth, in a game that seemed over early, but turned into a dramatic battle that lasted four hours and 39 minutes.

The Wildcats started their rally in the top of the eighth, putting up three runs on four hits and chasing Western starter Drew Saberhagen, who allowed just two runs on six hits in 7 1/3 innings.

After the 'Cats took advantage of walks, errors and hit batsmen for seven runs to tie the score in the top of the ninth, Webb shut down the Catamount offense for three scoreless innings, but was unable to go the distance. With two on and no outs in the bottom of the 12th, J.C. Lyon's liner into right field allowed the winning run to score on a throwing error from third.

Western used six pitchers to close out the game, and Wildcat hitters scored eight runs on six hits and drew six walks. Catcher Tommy Piacenza reached on a fielding error to start the big inning, and Chris FitzPatrick slapped a one-out single into the right-side gap. Center fielder Hugh Eden got hit by a pitch to load the bases, and everybody moved around on a wild pitch for the first run of the frame.

Shore and Kayne drew back-to-back walks, loading the bases and scoring the second run of the inning, and Matt Ray and right fielder Chase FitzPatrick followed with consecutive two-out, bases-loaded walks. Piacenza made his second appearance of the inning and was hit with the bases still loaded, and pinch hitter Pat Brady knotted the score with a clutch two-run single into left field.

Chase FitzPatrick finished 3-for-5 to lead the Wildcats, collecting three of the team's 12 hits. Reliever Mac Hunter (0-1) was tagged with the loss after facing two batters in the 12th in relief of Webb.

Dick Cooke Coaches in 1,000th Game

The Wildcats' rain-suspended game against Virginia Tech on May 6 was the 1,000th game of head coach Dick Cooke's 20-year career.

In one season at Belmont Abbey, Cooke's team was 11-32, and in 19 seasons at Davidson he has put together a career record of 365-591-1, for a total of 1,000 games.

Wildcats Sweep Spartans, First SoCon Sweep Since 2005

Davidson picked up its first Southern Conference series sweep since winning three against Appalachian State in 2005. The 'Cats defeated the Spartans three straight days, 5-4, 4-2 and 5-4 (11).

In the opening game, Davidson got all five of its runs on the long ball, and Mike Frongello and Matt Webb held the Spartans to just two hits over the last four shutout innings to secure the win. Chase FitzPatrick powered Davidson for a second straight night, hitting 2-for-4 with three RBI and two home runs. Danny Weiss also homered to drive in a pair of runs.

Drew Gadaire hit a three-run home run in the eighth inning to lift the Davidson Wildcats to a 4-2 win in game two. Chris Lamb allowed just two unearned runs on five hits and struck out eight in 5 1/3 innings. Frongello worked 2 2/3 innings of no-hit baseball. Matt Webb allowed just a lone hit in the ninth inning to pick up his second straight save and fifth on the season.

For a third straight day, the Davidson Wildcats used timely hitting and strong pitching to secure a Southern Conference series sweep. Trailing 3-1 in the bottom of the seventh, Graham Chapman (1-for-5, 2 RBI) drove a 2-1 pitch from Spartan reliever Zach Furl over the wall in right field to knot the score. Mike Frongello starred for a third straight day, allowing just one hit in the final three innings of regulation, though Greensboro got across a run in the top of the 11th off Ryan Overcash to go ahead. With two on and two outs, Weiss (3-for-5, RBI) drove in a run. FitzPatrick (1-for-5) was hit by a pitch to load the bases for Pat Brady (1-for-4, RBI), who stood in for an 11-pitch at-bat to draw a walk and send in the winning run.

Mike Frongello Named SoCon Pitcher of the Week

A critical part of the Wildcats' sweep over UNC Greensboro at Wilson Field this weekend, Davidson relief pitcher Mike Frongello has been named Southern Conference Baseball Pitcher of the Week for all games from April 20-26, as selected by the league's sports information directors.

Frongello earned two wins by throwing 11 2/3 innings of shutout baseball, walking none and striking out nine. He appeared in all five games, helping Davidson to a 4-1 record on the week.

Frongello earned his first win against UNC Greensboro Friday night, tossing three shutout innings of two-hit baseball, walking none and striking out three, in the Wildcats' 5-4 win.

The sophomore from Raleigh, N.C., came back the next day and tossed 2 2/3 shutout innings of hitless relief, with no walks and three strikeouts to earn a second straight win in the Wildcats' 4-2 game-two win over UNCG.

Frongello then pitched three innings and allowed just one hit while walking none and striking out a pair in the Wildcats' 5-4, 11-inning win over Greensboro to complete the sweep. He also tossed a one-hit shutout inning against Radford Tuesday and two shutout innings of three-hit baseball against N.C. A&T Wednesday.

Frongello is the first Davidson pitcher to win the honor since Jay Haefner Feb. 27, 2006.

Gadaire Named Collegiate Baseball Player of the Week

For his record-setting performance against Gardner-Webb, freshman first baseman Drew Gadaire was named among Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week.

With his fourth home run of the game in the 11th, Gadaire (5-for-6) tied the record set by Gus Quattlebaum, who homered four times on Feb. 16, 1997 against VCU. Gadaire also singled in his first at-bat and finished with a game-high five RBI.

The Gardner-Webb Bulldogs, though, put together three hits for the winning run in the top of the 12th, taking an 11-10 win over the Davidson Wildcats Wednesday night in midweek non-conference action at Wilson Field.

Webb Named SoCon Student-Athlete of the Week

After helping the Wildcats baseball team to a 4-1 opening week, senior shortstop Matt Webb was named Southern Conference Student-Athlete of the Week for all sporting events from Feb. 18-24, as announced by the league office.

The senior sports a 3.752 GPA in psychology in the classroom.

On the diamond, Webb batted .444 in five games, hitting two doubles and driving in two RBIs while scoring seven runs. Webb has also been perfect on the base paths, going 5-for-5 in stolen bases.

Webb also pitched a hitless ninth inning, retiring the only three batters he faced in the 'Cats' 12-5 win over Lafayette Saturday.
